Profile

Currently I'm studying Computer Science and Econometrics - part-time Master's studies, during the week I learn programming. Right now im learning java and Spring boot as backend and react as a frontend for my applications. I can use streams and write unit tests. I am mobilized to learn and expand my knowledge in the programming area. I also know the basics of html, css, js, sql and databases (MySQL, MsSQL, MongoDb). I am able to start a full-time job immediately remotely or stationary in Bydgoszcz.
